

Eating Breakfast

509 | Arts |

There are plenty more activities and videos to look at on our learning resources page:

<https://www.509arts.co.uk/project/meal-one-creative-learning/>

This QR code will also take you there

We also have loads of stuff on our social media sites to look at:

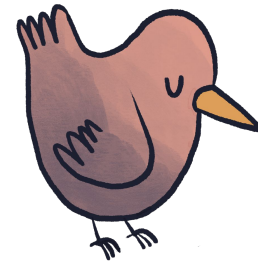

We would love to see what you produce from these activities!

Take a picture of your work and send it to hello@509arts.co.uk and we will upload it to our gallery.

You can see the lovely creations other people have made at our gallery:

In the play the roots of the plum tree grow into the kitchen and start to eat Helbert's breakfast!

Click on this picture of the roots to hear the music from the show.

The next slide has the words on it that are sung in the play.

Ask someone to read them out to you.

Which words do you like best?

An illustration of a tree with brown branches, green leaves, and several purple, round fruits. A small brown bird is perched on a branch. In the bottom left corner, a large, stylized orange animal head is visible. The background is a light, textured grey with scattered white flowers and green leaves.

Roots over here
And there and here
And everywhere!

Great big fat ones
Gobbling
Tiny little curly ones
Slurping
In the milk jug
Sucking

Naughty little furry ones
Burping
In the teapot
Munching
In the cornflakes
Swallowing
In the salt pot
Crunching
In the red jam!
Hollering

Can you read out the words on the next slides?

How does it feel to say them out loud?

Can you change how you say them? Try making them very long words, or short and snappy.

Can you change the pitch of your voice when you say them? What do they sound like in a high pitched voice?

You could even try singing them like they did in the play!

gobbling

slurping

burping

sucking

munching

swallowing

crunching

hollering

Can you make up your own words and sounds that sound like the tree roots eating?

Here's some we made up, how would you say them?
